Francesca Albanese, Jeremy Corbyn, Irene Montero, Manon Aubry, Rima Hassan, Sira Rego, and Mustafa Barghouti Convene in Brussels for Gaza Accountability Summit

Media invited for direct access to leading UN officials and parliamentarians as Global Sumud Congress unfolds on Wednesday

April 21, 2026 BRUSSELS – The Global Sumud Parliamentary Congress convenes tomorrow in Brussels, bringing together some of the most prominent legal, political, and human rights voices shaping international responses to Gaza.

Confirmed participants include UN Special Rapporteur Francesca Albanese, UK MP Jeremy Corbyn, US Congresswoman Rashida Tlaib (online, TBC), MEP and former Spanish minister Irene Montero, MEP Manon Aubry, and Palestinian political leader Mustafa Barghouti, alongside UN experts, European and Global South parliamentarians, and international legal authorities.

The Congress is taking place alongside the advancing Global Sumud Flotilla, linking maritime civilian action with coordinated political and legal efforts on land.

MEDIA ACCESS

Journalists are invited to attend for on-the-record interviews and press access to key speakers, including:

- Francesca Albanese — UN Special Rapporteur on human rights in the occupied Palestinian territory
- Rashida Tlaib — Member of the United States Congress
- Jeremy Corbyn — Member of Parliament, United Kingdom
- Irene Montero — Member of the European Parliament, former Spanish Minister
- Manon Aubry — Member of the European Parliament, Co-Chair of The Left
- Rima Hassan — Member of the European Parliament
- Mustafa Barghouti — Palestinian National Initiative
- Michael Fakhri — UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Food
- Diana Buttu — Palestinian-Canadian lawyer and former PLO spokesperson

Speakers will address Gaza's humanitarian crisis, international legal obligations, and policy measures related to arms transfers, accountability, and humanitarian access.

WHAT COMES NEXT

The Congress will culminate in the anticipated Brussels Declaration, outlining coordinated political steps toward accountability and humanitarian access to Gaza.

Delegates are also expected to join a public mobilisation march to the European Parliament following the Congress, bringing these demands into the public sphere.
